SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The Supreme Court today handed down three decisions. In the first H. E. Cooper, Minister of Public Instruction vs. N. Hao, the court finds in favor of defendant in that the department and not the Minister of Public Instruction is the proper party plaintiff in an action of ejectment to recover school land. The opinion is by Judge Frear.

In re Nuna Fernandez habeas corpus proceedings appeal from decision of Circuit, the appeal is denied and the order of the Circuit Court affirmed.

In the case of Antone Sylva vs.
P. Cockett for malicious prosecution the court holds. "Where a party before swearing out a warrant for a criminal offense presents all the essential facts and obtains thereupon advice of responsible counsel that he has reasonable grounds to believe that such offense has been committed it is a defense to an action for malicious prosecution for such arrest." In the decision the court says of the action of the circuit judge:

"The Circuit Court might well have directed the jury to find a verdict for the defendant. But a nonsuit was quite within its powers."

CITED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

James Ashford has been cited to appear before Judge Perry in the Circuit Court, August 5, to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court. This action was brought about by a complaint on the part of S. Ahmi charging Ashford with disregarding the order of the Court, issued April 5, 1899, to deliver to Henry Smith, Clerk, a deed from said Ashford to S.
Ahmi, dated October 5, 1897, and dealing with the conveyance to said Ahmi of certain lands in fee simple. The time has long since gone by when this deed should have been surrendered and complainant states that defendant in the case has repeatedly refused and continues to refuse to place the deed in the hands of Clerk Henry Smith.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION RALLY.

A University Extension rally is to be held in the High School building at 7:30 o'clock, Monday evening next, and all those interested in University Extension, ever have been or ever expect to be, are invited to attend. The meeting will be addressed by Dr.
John Dewey, the corner stone of University Extension work, on the history of the movement, its inception, growth and extent. Prof.
Rolle will also speak along the same lines. Judge Frear will preside, and E. A. Mott-Smith, Mr.
Townsend, Mr. Scott and Mr.
Hosmer will speak on the educational need of this community and the best way of supplying it. The general scheme of the meeting is to set forth what University Extension is, what it has done and what it may do for Honolulu.

This rally is a preliminary meeting to the course of lectures to be given by Dr. Dewey about the time of the opening of the Summer School.

Milk Adulteration Continued.

Manuel Ledo was up in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of adulterating milk. The young man claims that he was not the driver of wagon at the time the charge was made. The case has been allowed to stand for a little. Ledo who drives for Silvan-no Nobriga, pleaded guilty to the same charge a short time ago and had sentence suspended. It will be remembered also that Ledo was fined $50 and costs a few days since on the charge of furious and heedless driving.

The Pope is reported to be again ill with intestinal catarrh.
